Behavioral Expectations of Adults

- When participating in or acting on behalf of the Parks & Rec. Dept. programs, adults are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with accepted standards of social behavior, to respect the rights of others and to refrain from any conduct which may be injurious or detrimental to the Parks & Recreation program.

The following actions constitute misconduct for which adults may be subject to disciplinary action.

- Falsifying information, dishonesty or cheating, in relation with any Parks & Recreation program or activity.
- Obstructing or disruption of any Parks & Recreation activity or the aiding and/or encouraging others to engage in such conduct.
- Failure to comply with specific rules of any program, contest or activity implemented by the Brown Co. Parks & Rec. Department.
- Failure to comply with the direction of Parks & Recreation officials acting in the proper performance of their duties.

Conduct:

- The judgment of Officials is final and can NOT be appealed
- No derogatory remarks to or about officials or volunteers
- No unsportsmanlike conduct, i.e. jeering, profanity or profane gestures
- Poor sportsmanship will not be tolerated! (see penalty and appeal)

Poor Sportsmanship / Technical Foul Penalty:

- Unsportsmanlike vs non-unsportsmanlike technicals. The referee and/or supervisor will make the determination which type of technical will be given.
- Non-unsportsmanlike technical – examples of this type of technical foul include (hanging on the rim, not having uniform, calling a timeout when you don't have any, delay of game, minor verbal outburst such as "make the call"). This will result in two shots and the ball for the opposing team but will not result in a player ejection. However, two non-unsportsmanlike techs in the same game will result in an ejection for the remainder of that current game.
- Unsportsmanlike technical – examples of this type of technical include (cursing, threatening another player or official, excessive hard fouls, pushing another player in anger etc). This will result in the player sitting out the remainder of game and the opposing team will get two shots and possession of the ball.
- Note: This could lead to a suspension based on the severity of the offense (see verbal intimidation below).

- 2nd unsportsmanlike technical offense – player must sit out the remainder of the current game, plus next game.
- 3rd unsportsmanlike technical offense – suspension for remainder of current league season and tournament (no refund will be given.)
- Any intentional verbal intimidation or physical altercation toward another participant or Official will result in immediate suspension for a length of time determined by the Board. The Director may suspend any individual for rule violations or misconduct until the Board meets to consider an action.

Appeal Review Process and Fee:

- Any suspensions may be appealed to the Parks and Recreation Department
